ORDER

AND NOW, this 4th day of December, 2019, it has come to my attention that Michele Hangle of the Hangle Aronchick Segal Pudlin & Schiller firm has entered her appearance in this matter. Beginning in 2014, I have appointed Ms. Hangle's father, William T. Hangle (also of the Hangle Aronchick firm) to serve as special discover master and receiver in matters before me. (See Johnson v. SmithKline Beecham Corp., 11-cv-5782, Doc. No. 256; KeyBank Nat'l Ass'n v. Fleetway Leasing Co., 18-cv-667, Doc. No. 96.) In light of those appointments, to ensure the appearance of impartiality I have not and will not allow Mr. Hangle to appear before me. That question is not implicated, however, by the appearance of the Hangle Aronchick firm before me, which I have allowed.

Although the appearance of Ms. Hangle before me would in no way be improper, in an abundance of caution and again to ensure the appearance of impartiality, I have directed that Ms. Hangle's appearance be WITHDRAWN in the instant case.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
